

Interviewing Workplace People

Questions for Believers

- What do you do for a living?
- What are the issues you face in your daily work?
- What difference does your faith make to how you deal with these issues?
- How would you like the church to pray for your ministry in the workplace?
- What would you appreciate from the church to support and empower you for your ministry Monday to Friday
- What makes you celebrate in your work?
- When do you feel closest to God in your daily work?
- What makes you weary or feel away from God?
- What causes you to pray during your work-day?
- Do you experience God's pleasure in your work?

Questions for people not in the church

- Do you have a sense of oughtness about your daily work (I was born for this?)
- What brings you joy?
- What causes you to celebrate?
- Do you sense that your work has value in itself and not just for the pay it produces (if it is paid)?
- What causes stress for you in your daily work?
- Is your work validated by anyone other than yourself?
- Do you see your work as serving your neighbour in some way whether or not you can see her or him?
